Some farraginous remarks upon an act for the due observation of the Lord's day. This is to prove, that there never was such a day as the honourable court has made, (and calls it the Lord's day) that was ever made by Christ or his apostles; but stands opposed to their doctrine: and also that there never was a Sabbath day ever commanded or appointed for the use of the Christian church. Which is proved by the sacred scriptures, the fathers, and also by the best divines of the Protestant churches, which are strictly and impartially adhered to. By a lover of the truth ... Concord [N.
